The High-Fi tech of RBC	In this CAS we will learn from scratch about audio and light technology used at RBC to run events of any kind. This includes the setup of a speakers system, placing event lights properly as well as operating sound and light controls during an event.
Bike Repair Workshop	The Bicycle Repairs Workshop CAS works to maintain our fleet of old college bicycles, but also to develop and promote a culture of safe cycling by passing on repair skills. Students in the CAS will develop skills in bicycle repair, leadership to take charge of the progress of their repairs, and confidence to teach fellow members in our community how to perform the most common repairs by themselves. Most of our older fleet of bicycles have been donated by Dreisamwerke (the same organization that runs our kitchen) which also runs a bicycle repair shop for people with different abilities and difficult backgrounds. In the medium to longer term the service will work towards building a partnership with the dreisamwerke bicycle shop, where we could work alongside people of different abilities repairing bicycles and helping promote their vision of social integration. The service will meet regularly on Wednesday mornings but

His designs can be used across all media channels, from facebook to the website, the Annual Report to fliers. The CD will learn to work independently, making suggestions and coming up with his own ideas. On certain projects, the CD will work together with UWC's external designer, hence gathering hands-on experience of the job field of
Plants around our Kartause	"What do we know about the trees and grass surrounding our "Kartause"? Not just their names but the use in traditional cuisine or in medicine and witchcraft of the dark ages. If you love the nature and plants around us, if you love to take pictures of old trees or little evanescent flowers, if you are curious of local stories and history help to build up
Emmi-Seeh-Heim Seniors community center	Young meets old. Do you want to bring a breath of fresh and international air into the seniors community center Emmi-Seeh-Heim, located close to the school at the river Dreisam and in our quarter "Oberwiehre-Waldsee"? You are very welcome! The Emmi- Seeh-Heim for elderly people offers a wide range of activities for their seniors, as well as regular events and meetings between young and old. They sing and dance, do memory workouts and learn languages, they do sports and play games. The Wednesday morning starts with singing and games – be part of the singing group – build individual relationships and - if you want - have lunch with the elderly.
Fighting for human rights with Amnesty International	Amnesty International is an organization which is fighting for human rights. Students would help in the process either by spreading awareness and that is by going to public schools in Freiburg, talk about the issues which innocent people have to face and lead the presentations there. One of the core parts of involvement in Amnesty International is a letter writing. Students would write letters, sometimes even by hand, to people who are unfairly jailed. And of course, much more
Ferdinand Weiß Haus Fruit up	Welcome to a very multidisciplinary jam-making project in cooperation with the Ferdinand Weiß Haus, an organisation that supports homeless people. UWC Strings	This CAS is designed for all string players who love to play music at a more advanced level and who want to play in a group. This year, we are also looking for a pianist who is interested in playing chamber music with us. Our repertoire is varied and every member of the group gets to suggest repertoire. Last year, we played pop arrangements, movie music, baroque and some Rachmaninoff. This year, we hope to try some improvisation too! Our goal is not to play impossible music, but music we can master and really play well. We are all about having fun and playing together for stress relief! This is a service CAS, so as soon as we have some basic repertoire, we will be giving performances in the community twice a month. We aim to bring music to those who may not be able to go out to concerts, and will be playing in nursing homes, refugee camps, schools, etc. Also, we often perform at RBC events. If you are interested or are wondering whether your playing level is appropriate for the group, please contact Donovan or Jordon, we would love to talk to you!!
