

August 2023 UWC Robert Bosch College Vacancies

UWC Robert Bosch College is home to 200 young adults from 16 to 19 years from over 90 countries who spend two years living and learning on our campus in Freiburg. The academic program is based on the International Baccalaureate (IB), an internationally recognized graduation program.

From August 2023 on UWC Robert Bosch College is seeking a School Psychologist (m / f /d) on 50% part-time for a two-year parental leave cover.

The School Psychologist's role is to provide support to students, especially those who struggle or have been identified as having social, emotional or behavioural problems. The School Psychologist will consult and collaborate with teachers, administrators, and occasionally with parents and other personnel or agencies to help the student function effectively and achieve their fullest potential—both in their academic and residential life.

Successful applicants are likely to hold these qualities:

- Strong knowledge of support systems, methods, structures and local organizations
- Excellent interpersonal, intercultural and organizational skills
- Ability of individual and supportive counseling (in individual or group settings) and crisis intervention
- Ability to demonstrate initiative, be self-directed and work independently
- Ability to maintain strict confidentiality
- Able to work independently and as a member of a team
- A recognized professional background in the field of psychology or education with a specialization in counselling
- A minimum of three years of work experience
- Excellent knowledge of English and German (additional languages are considered an asset)

UWC Robert Bosch College offers to its employees the opportunity of broad individual professional development, the participation in an inspiring school community and a working place in an outstanding environment in one of the nicest cities in Germany.

Interested applicants should send the following documents to career@uwcrobertboschcollege.de:

- CV
- brief cover letter
- contact information for three referees