

UWC Robert Bosch College Vacancies for January 2026 or later

UWC Robert Bosch College is an international boarding high school for young people aged 16-19 from all over the world and with diverse backgrounds. Our students from around 90 different countries live and learn on campus for two years and acquire the International Baccalaureate (IB) Diploma. UWC Robert Bosch College seeks dedicated and inspired educators who are committed to the intellectual, social, and ethical development of students. We value candidates who are drawn to the particular educational experience of the United World Colleges, and to UWC Robert Bosch College's unique mission within the movement.

From January 2026 or later, initially on a two-year contract renewable by mutual consent, UWC Robert Bosch College is seeking qualified candidates (m / f / d) for:

- Learning Support and Special Educational Needs Coordinator (80%)

In addition, there may be a possibility of working as a House Tutor with residential responsibilities, which involves living on campus and supervising one of the student houses. This would add an additional 20% to the overall position. Please indicate in your application if you would be interested in this.

Successful applicants are likely to hold these qualities:

- An internationally recognized qualification (at least a university degree) in pedagogy, social-pedagogy, psychology, teaching or similar
- Relevant professional experience supporting students aged 16-19 from a wide range of backgrounds and in a variety of academic subjects and/or contexts
- Ability to contribute to the professional development of the staff in areas such as inclusive pedagogy, neurodiversity, and more
- Enthusiasm for working in a multicultural context
- Commitment to UWC mission and values
- Willingness to engage students beyond the classroom
- Adventurous, challenge-seeking spirit
- International mindedness – international experience is considered an asset
- Experience in a UWC or IB school is considered an asset but is not a prerequisite

All applicants should have passion for education to highly motivated 16-19-year-old students. All staff members are expected to lead by example and partner with students in their engagement with the community, locally, nationally and internationally.

UWC Robert Bosch College offers to its employees the opportunity of broad individual professional development, the participation in an inspiring school community and a working place in an outstanding environment in one of the nicest cities in Germany.

We particularly encourage applications from candidates with diverse backgrounds and situations.

Interested applicants should send the following documents by 31 October 2025 to career@uwcrobertboschcollege.de:

- CV
- brief cover letter
- contact information for three referees
- a succinct statement of commitment to the UWC mission of peace and sustainability
